We acknowledge receipt and answer to all paper proposals submitted. A committee will select the papers according to acknowledged academic standards.

Scholars whose papers have been accepted will be asked to register in advance at the conference.

The University of Molise in Campobasso was founded in 1982. Its Law Faculty has always been active in comparative and international initiatives. Campobasso can be reached by train, bus or car from Naples (150 km) or Rome (230 km).

Further logistical information will be provided with the provisional programme of the conference.

The previous editions of the Younger Comparative Scholars Conference were held in Macerata (2008), Catania/Enna (2010), Aosta (2012), and Rome (2014).
